TO: District Site Managers

RE: P.A. Announcement

Tonight's district tournament will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the North Central Washington Activities Association and the Washington Interscholastic Activities Association.

The North Central Washington Activities Association prohibits displaying signs other than school banners and the use of any type of noisemakers at district tournaments. We would like to remind you that alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the premises. You are also reminded smoking is not allowed on school grounds.

All spectators are encouraged to root for their team but are asked to refrain from any display of poor sportsmanship toward opponents and officials. We hope you will enjoy the tournament and support our efforts to promote good citizenship and sportsmanship in high school interscholastic athletics.
